New energy provider ČEZ's Supervisory Board member

The Supervisory Board of ČEZ, a. s., co-opted Zdeněk Hrubý as its member on 22 February 2007. Zdeněk Hrubý worked in the ČEZ Supervisory Board from February 2003 to last December, when he resigned from the post of the Supervisory Board Chairman in connection with assuming the function of government's secretary for the Czech Republic's presidency of the EU preparation. He resigned from this function later.

The newly elected Supervisory Board member has been co-opted until the date of the next General Meeting of the company.
