

Inside Information

CEZ sold 100 % share in I&C Energo to MOL

Yesterday, the transaction was settled, the shares were transferred to MOL and purchase price was paid. This transaction is a part of the industrial alliance agreement between CEZ and MOL.

I&C Energo ranks among top suppliers providing comprehensive services in the area of control and regulation systems, electro energetics, industrial information systems and electrical engineering systems. The main areas of provided services are industrial servicing, investment supplies, system integration and engineering solutions.